BARS ONLY MONOPOLY

President's Plan as to Holding Companies Is Explained

NATURAL GROWTH NOT OPPOSED

The Trade Commission to Be One of Publicity

Washington, Jan. 27.—The administration's anti-trust policy is directed only at such business methods as are directly in the nature and spirit of monopoly. The president made this plain to callers yesterday. He held unwarranted the alarm felt in some quarters that the bill prohibiting holding corporations would affect companies that organized subsidiaries to meet state legal conditions. None of the trust bills, the president explained to his callers, contains anything which would bar from business anything that is not of itself monopolistic. And so far as the interstate trade commission is concerned, he indicated that that body will not be the "dragon" certain business interests fear. Its findings, the president explained, are not binding upon any one. It undertakes investigations at the direction of the department of justice and its reports are made to the attorney general, who acts on them as he sees fit. It prepares orders for the court, but the court can amend these orders as it sees fit. Whether all information compiled by the new board is to be made public will be for the commission itself to determine. The president believes that at least a certain amount of publicity will be necessary in view of the state of public opinion. He did not believe, he explained, that this commission would be as secretive as has been the internal revenue bureau of the treasury department in connection with its investiga-

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Is Aching or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 600 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv't.

tion of corporations liable to the corporation tax. But one thing that the president considered certain, he explained, and that was that business rivals will not be permitted to glean trade secrets as the result of trade investigations under the new law.

The Transport Workers' federation and other unions are threatening sympathetic strikes if the builders do not settle their differences to-day.

NEW PLAN FOR PATRONAGE

Senator Weeks Favors Control by a Commission

WOULD RELIEVE THE PRESIDENT

He Could Use Time for Affairs of More Importance

Washington, Jan. 27.—Federal appointments were the subject of a speech in the Senate yesterday by Senator Weeks of California, on his bill to provide for a commission appointed by the president to receive and pass upon all applications and recommendations for appointments to federal offices. The measure would forbid members of the Congress to recommend applicants or aid in obtaining positions. Senator Weeks explained that his bill was intended to relieve the president and members of Congress from the burdens of recommending and appointing the thousands of officers throughout the country; to bring about the appointment of more competent men and women, and to relieve the public service as far as possible from the "odious of the present pernicious system of patronage." The time taken up by the president and members of Congress in considering matters of patronage, he said, was enormous and could be devoted to more important public service.

From figures given to the Senate in compliance with a resolution of December, 1910, the senator showed the total number of officers and employees of the government at that time, exclusive of the appointments made under civil service and officers of the army and navy, to be 148,714, of whom 10,839 are appointed by the president. These appointments, he said, had steadily increased since the time of that report, the number of postmasters to be appointed by the president having been increased by 453. President Wilson at the beginning of his administration, he said, had felt the necessity of some such help as this bill would afford, but his effort to transfer to his heads of departments the duty of making appointments had proved a failure.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—After Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, had charged that "if the strike of the copper miners in Michigan is lost, it will be due directly to the inactivity of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor," the convention of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday voted unanimously to request Samuel Gompers, president of the federation of labor, to appear before the convention and explain the attitude of the council. President Moyer declared that two appeals had been made to the American Federation of Labor executive council at Washington for aid for the copper strikers, and that so far no action had been taken.

LITTAUER IS INDICTED AS A SMUGGLER

Former Congressman Accused of Bringing in a $40,000 Diamond Without the Payment of Duty.

New York, Jan. 27.—Former Congressman Lucius N. Littauer and his brother of Gloversville, N. Y., have been indicted by the federal grand jury, charged respectively, with smuggling and receipt of a $40,000 diamond necklace in December last. The indictment was handed up secretly last Thursday and its return did not become public until yesterday.

It is charged that the former congressman, who was a political advisor of Governor Odell and President Roosevelt, brought the jewel over on a Hamburg American liner taking it directly to Washington; that when he learned a customs inspector was on his way to Washington to investigate the charge that the jewel had been entered without payment of duty he immediately surrendered it to the officials. Littauer is charged with entering the jewel and his brother is charged with receiving it. They are indicted under section 37 of the revised statutes and also under section 3082, which covers overt acts.

In 1903, Congressman Littauer, head of the glove-making firm of Littauer brothers, was brought into prominence through charges aired in the bankruptcy case of Edward R. Lyon. Lyon had a contract with the government to furnish the army with muskrat gloves at very high figures. Littauer Brothers were creditors of Lyon, and testimony was adduced to show that Congressman Littauer was really interested in the profits of the contract. During the framing of the Payne-Adrich tariff bill Congressman Littauer came into prominence again—it being asserted that he influenced Representative Payne in procuring a favorable tariff against foreign gloves. He was one of the most aggressive workers for that protective measure. It is not known when he will be arraigned to plead to the indictment.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 27.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and six other union leaders are expected to come here this week to be arraigned on conspiracy charges. O. N. Hilton of Denver, attorney for the Western Federation, sent word on Sunday that union officials would return voluntarily to answer indictments returned against them two weeks ago by a special grand jury investigating disorders arising from the strike of copper miners. Thirty-one strikers who were indicted at the same time and on similar charges were prepared to offer pleas yesterday. It is doubtful whether the cases will be reached during the present term of court.

KAUFMAN IN CUSTODY. And an Investigation of His Career Is Under Way.

Boston, Jan. 27.—Witnesses of the killing of Willie W. Heath, police officer, by an escaping burglar at Salisbury last October, were brought here yesterday in connection with an investigation of the career of August Kaufman, arrested Sunday on the charge of blowing open a safe. The police, who say Kaufman confessed to Sunday's safe-blowing and to several other daring burglaries in this city, obtained evidence which led them to believe that he might have been concerned in the Salisbury shooting. Kaufman, who appears to be well educated, said he had been employed as a chef and had been studying inventions. In his room in a lodginghouse were found, in addition to explosives and an electric battery, many books by famous authors. Kaufman told the police that he was familiar with several languages and had published treatises on socialism.

JAP AGITATORS RESUME ATTACK

Accuse Makino of Submitting Speech to Washington Before Its Delivery.

Tokio, Japan, Jan. 27.—The attacks made on the Japanese government by members of the opposition in connection with the California alien land ownership legislation and the recently disposed Japanese naval contract scandals were continued yesterday during the discussion of the budget in the House of Representatives. Sabura Shimada, one of the most active men on the opposition side, declared the Japanese government had shown Foreign Secretary Baron Makino's speech to the American government before its delivery to the Japanese parliament. He said this information had come from special correspondents in the United States, and if such were the case it was injurious to Japan's national dignity.

Baron Makino, in reply, denied having submitted his speech to Washington. He added that Japan was making her best efforts to reach a solution of the California question. Referring to the naval scandal, in which the name of Vice-Admiral Koichi Fujii, former Japanese naval attaché in Berlin, had been mentioned as having been offered commissions on contracts obtained by a German electrical concern, Baron Makino said he had requested a report on the subject from the Japanese ambassador to Germany.
